Beach cleanup near Rostock Harbour (Germany)

A polluted beach near the Rostock harbour was cleaned up within the framework of the EU-wide Ocean Initiatives programme against marine litter pollution through beach, lake, river and submarine clean-ups, taking place from 22nd to 25th March. Over 30 people participated in this event in Rostock to clean a 300m long coastal section during 90 minutes. The campaign was initiated by the Surfrider Foundation Europe and conducted by several stakeholders.

Facts

| | |
|---|---|
| Place / Location | Germany |
| Commencement Date | 24 March 2012 |
| Duration | 13:00-15:00 |
| Theme | Mitigation, Awareness (Cross-cutting) |
| Type of Initiative | Campaign |
| Initiated by | Surfrider Foundation Europe |
| Involved Stakeholders | BeachedArt by Anke Paap (Anke Paap is an artist making art from beach litter), EUCC-The Coastal Union Germany, public |
| Funding/Financial Support | No |
| Success Rate | Very Successful |
| Case Study prepared by | Matthias Mossbauer, EUCC-The Coastal Union Germany, mossbauer@eucc-d.de |
| Submitted by | EUCC-D |

Available documentation and further information

http://www.initiativesoceanes.org/index.php?lang=2

http://www.eucc-d.de

MARLISCO is a FP7 project funded by the European Commission.

The views and opinions expressed in this publication are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Commission.

CAPACITIES

European Commission

back to overview

Go back

MARLISCO is a FP7 project funded by the European Commission.

The views and opinions expressed in this publication are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Commission.

CAPACITIES

European Commission

www.marlisco.eu